

Get Moving Today! – Q&A

- Q: How do I start exercising consistently when my schedule is different every week?
- A: Taking a few minutes at the beginning of your week to schedule your exercise into your calendar can help you stay on top of your goals. Even if your exercise has to vary from week to week remember it is important to get some physical activity than none at all. The more movement the better!